Please note: For contracts issued or renewed on or after October 9, 2009, health plans are required by federal law to continue coverage for students who begin a medically necessary leave of absence from a post secondary institution or who experience a change in enrollment status as a result of a serious illness or injury during that plan year. If your dependent is a dependent under your plan and meets the requirements for a medical leave of absence, your dependent's coverage will be extended to the earlier of (i) 12 months from the date the medical leave (or change in enrollment status due to serious illness of injury) began or (ii) the date on which the coverage would otherwise terminate under the terms of your plan. To be eligible for this continued coverage, the dependent must be enrolled in the plan on the basis of being a student immediately before the medical leave begins and the treating physician must certify in writing as to the medical necessity of the leave of absence (or other change of enrollment)."
