

Summer 2025

Financial Aid Disbursement Schedule

- I. Eligible students with a remaining financial aid balance after tuition and fees have been paid will receive credit at The College Store up to the following amounts:

Full-Time student	12 or more credits	$1,000
Three Quarter Time Student	9 to 11 credits	$750
Half Time Student	6 to 8 credits	$500
Less than Half Time Student (Pell Only)	1 to 5 credits	$250

If your financial aid is complete and your tuition bill is paid in full by May 16, 2025, you may be eligible for early bookstore credit beginning on May 19, 2025.

Financial aid credit at The College Store expires on June 24, 2025

- II. All federal financial aid grant and student loan funds remaining after tuition, fees, and books have been paid will be disbursed to the student. The College mails all refund checks to the student's home address. It is the student's responsibility to make sure that their correct mailing address is on file in the Registrar's Office (Elston 213).

Check Mail Date: July 14, 2025

- III. Important: Any student who drops, withdraws, or stops attending classes may not be eligible for any disbursements of state or federal financial aid, and may be liable to repay all or part of the financial aid funds received. It is the student's responsibility to determine the potential effect on financial aid eligibility before dropping or withdrawing from courses.

Any students who are decertified for non-attendance in their classes may be required to document that they are attending classes before being eligible for future disbursements.

Fall 2025

Financial Aid Disbursement Schedule

- I. Eligible students with a remaining financial aid balance after tuition and fees have been paid will receive credit at The College Store up to the following amounts:

Full-Time student	12 or more credits	$1,000
Three Quarter Time Student	9 to 11 credits	$750
Half Time Student	6 to 8 credits	$500
Less than Half Time Student (Pell Only)	1 to 5 credits	$250

If your financial aid is complete and your tuition bill is paid in full by August 15, 2025, you may be eligible for early bookstore credit beginning on August 18, 2025.

Financial aid credit at The College Store expires on September 24, 2025.

- I. All financial aid grant, scholarship, and student loan funds remaining after tuition, fees, and books have been paid will be disbursed to the student. The College mails all refund checks to the student's home address. It is the student's responsibility to make sure that their correct mailing address is on file in the Registrar's Office (Elston 213).

Check Mail Date: October 13, 2025

Student loans for the Fall 2025 semester only are required to be split into two disbursements. The Fall 2024 second disbursement will be mailed on October 27, 2025.

- II. Important: Any student who drops, withdraws, or stops attending classes may not be eligible for any disbursements of state or federal financial aid, and may be liable to repay all or part of the financial aid funds received. It is the student's responsibility to determine the potential effect on financial aid eligibility before dropping or withdrawing from courses.

Any students who are decertified for non-attendance in their classes may be required to document that they are attending classes before being eligible for future disbursements.

Spring 2026

Financial Aid Disbursement Schedule

- II. Eligible students with a remaining financial aid balance after tuition and fees have been paid will receive credit at The College Store up to the following amounts:

Full-Time student	12 or more credits	$1,000
Three Quarter Time Student	9 to 11 credits	$750
Half Time Student	6 to 8 credits	$500
Less than Half Time Student (Pell Only)	1 to 5 credits	$250

If your financial aid is complete and your tuition bill is paid in full by January 9, 2026, you may be eligible for early bookstore credit beginning on January 12, 2026.

Financial aid credit at The College Store expires on February 18, 2026

- III. All financial aid grant, scholarship, and student loan funds remaining after tuition, fees, and books have been paid will be disbursed to the student. The College mails all refund checks to the student's home address. It is the student's responsibility to make sure that their correct mailing address is on file in the Registrar's Office (Elston 213).

Check Mail Date: March 9, 2026

Student loans for the Spring 2026 semester only are required to be split into two disbursements. The Spring 2025 second disbursement will be mailed on March 30, 2026.

- IV. Important: Any student who drops, withdraws, or stops attending classes may not be eligible for any disbursements of state or federal financial aid, and may be liable to repay all or part of the financial aid funds received. It is the student's responsibility to determine the potential effect on financial aid eligibility before dropping or withdrawing from courses.

Any students who are decertified for non-attendance in their classes may be required to document that they are attending classes before being eligible for future disbursements.